Room 101 is a place containing things we find annoying.

Watch the video and answer the questions

- What doesn't Roisin like about modern life? Why?

- What does the programme host compare Van Gogh's self-portrait to?

- What is "Hot dog or legs?"

- What's the point of the photos the host takes of himself?

Match numbers with letters to make expressions about anger.

1. to have a short
2. to fly off the ...
3. to wind somebody ...
4. to drive somebody up the ...
5. to make somebody's ... boil

a. handle
b. blood
c. fuse
d. up
e. wall

Complete the sentences with the expressions above. More than option might be correct.

1. Do you know what really ..........................................me ..................................................?
   My very loud neighbours!
2. My dad .......................................................... when he found out about my grades.
3. His nasty behaviour yesterday really ................................................................. .
4. I .............................................................. when it comes to bad manners, I find rude people very annoying.
5. Waiting in queues really........................................ me .................................................., I hate it!
Room 101 is a place containing things we find annoying.

Talk to your partner. Choose 4 things to put in Room 101 and say WHY.
Room 101 is a place containing things we find annoying.

Watch the video and answer the questions

- What doesn't Roisin like about modern life? Why?
- Selfies. She doesn't like the need people have to constantly document their lives.
- What does the programme host compare Van Gogh's self-portrait to?
  To a selfie.
- What is "Hot dog or legs?"
  It's a game where you need to guess whether what's in the picture is a hot dog or human legs.
- What's the point of the photos the host takes of himself?
  He uses them to send messages.

Match numbers with letters to make expressions about anger.

1. to have a short C
2. to fly off the ... A
3. to wind somebody ... D
4. to drive somebody up the .... E
5. to make somebody's ... boil B

Complete the sentences with the expressions above.

1. Do you know what really WINDS me UP?
   My very loud neighbours!
2. My dad FLEW OFF THE HANDLE when he found out about my grades.
3. His nasty behaviour yesterday really MADE MY BLOOD BOIL.
4. I HAVE A SHORT FUSE when it comes to bad manners, I find rude people very annoying.
5. Waiting in queues really DRIVES me UP THE WALL, I hate it!