

STUDENT A

- What might people find interesting about these events?
 - How difficult might the events be to organise?

A LIVE CONCERT	AN OPEN-AIR TENNIS MATCH
A FASHION SHOW

STUDENT B

- How can students benefit from doing these different activities?
 - How helpful might the activities be in preparing them for their future lives?

A GIRL STUDYING IN A LIBRARY	A GUY GIVING A PRESENTATION
A GROUP OF STUDENTS MAKING AN EXPERIMENT TOGETHER

STUDENT A

- Why do you think the adults have decided to spend times with the children in these situations?
- How do you think the adults and the children are feeling?

A WOMAN
PLANTING A SMALL
GARDEN WITH SOME CHILDREN

A MAN COACHING
A BOYS SOCCER
TEAM

A MAN MONITORING A GROUP OF
CHILDREN PLAYING ON THE CARPET

STUDENT B

- Why might the person need advice?
- What advice might the other person be giving?

AN OLDER WOMAN
TALKING TO A
YOUNGER WOMAN
WHO IS USING A COMPUTER

A MAN TALKING TO A BOY WHO IS SITTING ON A BIKE

A MAN TALKING TO A WOMAN WHO IS HOLDING A TENNIS RACQUET

STUDENT A

- Why might the people feel they need to apologise?
- What might have led to this situation?

A BRIDE AND A GROOM ARE CUTTING THE CAKE AND IT IS BEGINNING TO FALL OVER

A BOY AND HIS MOM ARE LOOKING AT A BROKEN VASE ON THE FLOOR

A TEACHER IS TALKING TO A SAD STUDENT HOLDING HIS EXAM PAPER

STUDENT B

- Why might the people might chosen to relax in these situations?
- Why might it help them to relax in this way?

A MAN IS GETTING A HEAD MASSAGE

A WOMAN IS READING ON THE SOFA

4 YOUNG MEN ARE PLAYING THEIR INSTRUMENTS IN A GARAGE